ABOUT CRAZY CUBE
Crazy Cube began in June 2008, when five young Luxembourgish musicians came together with the idea of establishing a band which would play an assortment of different musical genres. Interest in the band quickly grew and by December 2008, the group had its first rehearsal. Crazy Cube’s goal is to entertain people at festivals and celebrations, to play traditional concerts, and to provide music for interludes at academic assemblies. Crazy Cube performs a wide assortment of musical pieces of many styles and genres including popular music which is widely known. Their audiences in Luxembourg range from young to old and the band has quickly become one of the most popular young adult bands in the Grand Duchy.

Crazy Cube is honored to have received the high patronage of the United States Embassy in Luxembourg for this year’s visit for Luxembourg Fest. There will be 22 band members sharing their music at the Festival. To learn more about Crazy Cube, visit www.crazycube.org

BAND MEMBERS INCLUDE
Pierre “Putti” Fischer, Viviane Molitor, Jo Schmit, Pascale Weber, Jeff Mack, Joelle Wiseler, Martine Henrotte, Claire Goeres, Paul Fox, Patrick Kraus, Claude Kraus, Charel Boukel, Pierre Poull, Pol Henrotte, Ben Ehlinger, Anne Bissen, Nathale Mack, Franz Zeimetz, Georges Trauffler, Julie Trauffler, Marc Bissen, and Sebastian Helm

Special thanks to LACS Member Pol Henrotte for coordinating Crazy Cube’s Visit to the USA

CRAZY CUBE PERFORMANCES DURING HERITAGE WEEKEND
Saturday, August 13—1:00–4:00PM
Sunday, August 14—NOON–4:00PM
Belgium Community Park

ABOUT THE EXHIBIT
Luxembourg By Hot Air Balloon features 32 magnificent portraits of Luxembourg landscapes photographed from the basket of a hot air balloon. Luxembourg photographer and noted author Rob Kieffer and his balloon team floated over the most fascinating scenery and settings of the Grand Duchy: the Osling region of the Ardennes, the Gutland and Luxembourg City in the center of the country, the Minette area in the South, and the Moselle valley in the East.

The project was adventurous, time consuming, and perhaps a little daring: photographing an entire country from a rather anachronistic air vehicle which, since the days of the Montgolfier brothers, can only follow the direction of the wind. The outcome of this photographic journey was a unique book Luxembourg By Hot Air Balloon published by Editions Guy Binsfeld. The book contains some of Rob’s best photographs and his writing.

The book Luxembourg By Hot Air Balloon gave way to the exhibit Luxembourg By Hot Air Balloon which is owned by Luxembourg’s Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The exhibit has toured throughout the world including New York, Prague, Bangkok, Brussels, Amsterdam, Lisbon, Bratislava and Vienna. It is now making its debut in the Midwest.

Signed copies of Rob Kieffer’s book Luxembourg By Hot Air Balloon are available at the LACS Gift Shop while supplies last. Visit www.editionsguybinsfeld.lu

ABOUT ROB KIEFFER
Rob Kieffer resides in Bech, Luxembourg and heads the editorial staff of the Luxembourg publisher Editions Guy Binsfeld. He is a respected author and photo journalist whose travel columns are published in various European newspapers and in travel magazines such as GEO-Seasons. He has written a number of books about Luxembourg and other topics. To portray the Grand Duchy from a different perspective, Rob has been a part of over 100 hot air rides. His photography is the basis of his book Luxembourg By Hot Air Balloon and the exhibit bearing the same name.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

5TH ANNUAL CULTURAL CONFERENCE—“LET’S LEARN SOME LĚTZEBUERGESCH!”

8:30AM—2:30PM
Prairie Conference Center (West Bend Mutual Insurance)
1900 S. 18th Avenue
West Bend, WI (20 minutes west of Port Washington)
(Directions and map found on pg. 8)

CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION
Language is an integral and defining part of every culture. This is certainly true of Lětzebuergesch—the unique language of Luxembourg. This year’s Cultural Conference will help you grow in appreciation for the language of our ancestors while also affording you the rare opportunity to learn some basic, conversational Lětzebuergesch. After a keynote address offering an overview of Lětzebuergesch, the remainder of the day will be spent in fun, instructive, small group workshops with five outstanding language teachers direct from the Grand Duchy. Classes will be divided into “beginners” and “moderately fluent/advanced”. This is a chance of a lifetime! Join us, have some fun, and “Let’s Learn Some Lětzebuergesch!”

Non-Members $45/person (Early Registration on or before July 15, 2011) or $55 (after July 15, 2011)

LANGUAGE INSTRUCTOR/KEYNOTE PRESENTER—DR. CEDRIC KRUNMES
Cedric Krummes grew up in Pétange, Luxembourg in a Luxembourgish and French-speaking family. He is very proud of his Luxembourgish, Belgian, and Italian heritage. Cedric graduated in Linguistics and recently achieved his doctorate in Luxembourgish Linguistics for which he collected Luxembourgish emails, plays, and film scripts. He is interested in what people do with language on the Internet. In his spare time he enjoys singing and playing the flute. When you meet Cedric, say “Moien” and tell him what you think of using smiley faces in emails! The LACS is proud and honored to have the dynamic Cedric Krummes as this year’s Keynote Presenter. Cedric is brought to us by Luxembourg’s Ministry of Culture.

SPECIAL BONUS
You are invited to “continue” this year’s Cultural Conference with on-going, optional “Let’s Learn Some Lětzebuergesch!” workshops on Saturday and Sunday afternoon (1:30–3:00PM) at Luxembourg Fest. More details announced at the Cultural Conference!
